(Parents may take or send their infants and toddlers to the nursery at this time.)

RESPONSIVE READING: Psalm 78:1-7

Lea: O my people, hear my teaching; listen to the words of my mouth.

Peo: I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter hidden things, things from of old--

Lea: what we have heard and known, what our fathers have told us.

Peo: We will not hide them from their children; we will tell the next generation the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD, his power, and the wonders he has done.

Lea: He decreed statutes for Jacob and established the law in Israel, which he commanded our forefathers to teach their children, so the next generation would know them, even the children yet to be born, and they in turn would tell their children.

Peo: Then they would put their trust in God and would not forget his deeds but would keep his commands.

PROCLAIMING GOD'S WORD

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION: (unison)

Truly, we are surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses, loving God. We remember all those who have worshiped and served in this place, leaving a record of their faith. May we, too, be found faithful as we keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, in whose name we pray. Amen.

THE EPISTLE LESSON: Hebrews 11:1, 39, 12:1-3 (Text below)

Now faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see. These were all commended for their faith, yet none of them received what had been promised. Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us.

Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured such opposition from sinful men, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.

THE GOSPEL LESSON: John 15:1-5 (Text below)

"I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener. He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit, while every branch that does bear fruit he prunes so that it will be even more fruitful. You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you.

Remain in me, and I will remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me. "I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing.

HYMN OF REFLECTION: The Church's One Foundation Hymnal-442

(Remain seated) (vv.1,2, 4) Hymnody #45

SERMON: Running the Race Pastor Sylvia Karcher

and Assoc. Lay Pastor Jan Opdyke

RESPONSE TO THE SERMON: Litany for the Church

Lea: Almighty God, you built your church on the rock of human faith and trust; we praise you for Jesus Christ, the foundation and cornerstone of all we believe.

Peo: We praise you, God.

Lea: Save us from living in the past, and from resting on the work of others. Renew our vision, that we may know our duty in this place and this world today.

Peo: O Lord, please hear us.

Lea: Keep us from pride that excludes others from the shelter of your love, and let us not hold back what we have or what we are when there is so much need.

Peo: O Lord, please hear us.

Lea: Defend us from the ignorance that nourishes injustice and from indifference that causes hearts to break; that we may demonstrate your love and live beyond caste or color as Christ's men and women.

Peo: O Lord, please hear us.

Lea: O God, who gave us minds to know you, hearts to love you, and voices to sing your praise; send your Spirit among us; that, confronted by your truth, we may be free to worship you as we should; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

OFFERING OURSELVES TO GOD

CALL FOR THE OFFERING: (Leader)

Friends, freely we have received; let us freely give.

OFFERTORY:

◆DOXOLOGY: (sung response)

Praise God from Whom all blessings flow!

Praise God all creatures here, below!

Praise God above you heavenly host,

Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost!

PRAYER OF DEDICATION: (unison - please remain standing)

Gracious God, thank You for showing us a vision of the world as You meant it to be. As we bring our offerings we ask You to use us, sending us out into the world as messengers of Your Love, and messengers of peace and hope. Amen.
